

Users download image deck on install, each image having a corresponding philosophy

App draws on stored images during image processing. All images categorized as sandwich are stored for learning

At present, Sandy's response, which will be extensive, are a Room entity. The performance trade-off between a threaded call to Room and having several massive arrays of strings in memory will need to be tested.